

Cloud-based data solution including the proven quality measurement devices, intuitive web application and reliable service with calibrations

Follow the measurement trend instead of single-point measurements

Access the latest measurements with a mobile phone, tablet or computer wherever you are Combine data from different sensors for additional insight

Data is encrypted and safely stored in the Vaisala Jade Smart Cloud

Share the data easily with your stakeholders

No startup configuration or pairing of devices, no need to update any software yourself

