

City climate resilience

3 steps to modern preparedness

01

Establish a local weather and air quality network

Fully integrated sensors and cost-effective, customizable placements

02

Make data accessible to those who need it

Real-time, reliable access across devices and locations

03

Set up communication channels for alerts and warnings

Cloud, on-premise, or API options depending on your infrastructure

Smarter networks, better communities.